
The program:

8.30: Registration and tea/coffee
9.00: Chair, Professor Ashley Craig
9.05-9.15: Mr Don Ferguson, General Manager, Lifetime Care and Support Authority, NSW: Introduction
9.15-9.30: John Walsh video presentation: The value of research in assisting scheme planning and analysis
9.30-9.40: Professor Ian Cameron: Reply - Research informing the development of NIIS, NDIS, and injury compensation schemes: what is needed?
9.45-10.30: Professor Michele Sterling: WAD: latest evidence for rehabilitation and recovery
10.30-11.00: Morning tea
11.00-12.30: Symposia:
   1) Clinical approaches to musculoskeletal injury (Ian Cameron)
   2) Psychological injury and recovery following physical injury (Ashley Craig)
   3) Effectiveness of physiotherapy interventions for people with spinal cord injuries (Lisa Harvey)
12.30-1.30: Lunch
1.30-2.15: Professor Alex Collie: Back to the Future: 10 principles for achieving a health focused model of injury compensation
2.15-2.30: Afternoon tea
2.30-4.00: Symposia:
   1) Severe TBI (Robyn Tate)
   2) Epidemiological perspectives of musculoskeletal injury (Bamini Gopinath)
   3) Improving the management of pain in spinal cord injury: translating research into practice (James Middleton)
4.00-4.15: Conclusions